

Nasser Centre for Science and Technology

<https://ncst.edu.bh/job/school-nurse/>

School Nurse

Description

Student Health Management:

- Provide direct nursing care to students, including first aid, emergency care, and treatment of minor injuries or illnesses.
- Administer prescribed medications and maintain accurate medication logs.
- Monitor and manage chronic health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, or allergies.
- Conduct health screenings (e.g., vision, hearing, scoliosis) and refer students for further medical evaluation as needed.

Health Records and Compliance:

- Maintain detailed and confidential student health records in accordance with legal and school policy requirements.
- Ensure compliance with immunization regulations and follow up with families on missing or overdue vaccines.
- Prepare and submit reports related to student health as required by school administration or local/state authorities.

Health Education and Promotion:

- Educate students and staff on health and wellness topics such as hygiene, nutrition, and disease prevention.
- Develop and implement school-wide health initiatives and wellness programs.
- Collaborate with physical education teachers and counsellors to support holistic student well-being.

Emergency Preparedness and Training:

- Develop and oversee the school's emergency medical response protocols.
- Train staff on basic first aid, CPR, and the use of medical equipment such as EpiPens or AEDs.
- Serve as the first responder during medical emergencies and coordinate with external healthcare providers when needed.

Collaboration and Communication:

- Act as a liaison between students, families, and healthcare providers to address individual health concerns.
- Work closely with school counsellors and administrators to support students with mental health challenges or psychosocial needs.
- Communicate effectively with parents about their child's health needs or concerns.
- Communicate effectively with the pharmacies (Refill and calibration) for the devices and tools.
- Good communication and relations with the clinics, centres, Hospitals to provide a collaboration for the Health campaigns and Events (e.g. the World Health Day)

Hiring organization

Nasser Vocational Training Center

Job Location

Kingdom of Bahrain

Date posted

January 13, 2025

Health Education and Promotion:

- Educate students and staff on health and wellness topics such as hygiene, nutrition, and disease prevention.
- Develop and implement school-wide health initiatives and wellness programs.
- Collaborate with physical education teachers and counsellors to support holistic student well-being.

Qualifications:Education and Licensure:

- A valid Licensed from NHRA National Health Regulatory Authority Registered Nurse (RN)
- Bachelor's degree in nursing (BSN) preferred.
- Current CPR and First Aid certification.

Experience:

- Minimum of 2 years of nursing experience, preferably in a school or paediatric setting.
- Excellent Arabic Speaking and writing
- Experience addressing adolescent health issues.

Skills and Abilities:

- Strong clinical assessment and decision-making skills.
- Excellent organizational and record-keeping abilities.
- Ability to work collaboratively with students, parents, staff, and external medical professionals.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills to connect with adolescents effectively.

Physical Requirements:

- Ability to lift and move medical equipment and supplies as needed.
- Capacity to respond quickly in emergencies and navigate school campus efficiently.